Exclusive interview with Noir!

In this special first issue, we'd like to introduce you to our special guest columnist, Noir with this exclusive interview!

We asked Noir to join us in person at our top-secret Vault to tell us a little bit more about themselves:

"Yeah fine I'll do your stupid newspaper thing. Hi I'm Noir.

Thrilling! We then asked Noir what their favorite foods were!

"You know this it's red onion pizza and lemon drizzle cake, you asked me last week."

Oooh! Who would have thought! Lemon! How zesty!

"I'll zest you."

And finally, we asked Noir if they have any final words for our new readers:

"Light can you please get off the net I need to give Midnight a call about that stupid spaceship getting parking tickets again."

Dr Hooves travels through time and plumbing!

Recently I had the absolute pleasure of joining esteemed time-traveler and all around great horse, Dr Hooves!

Now, me and Dr Hooves could tell you a few stories about adventure and fun, none more than our grand days out at Abbey Pumping Station! Armed with my trusty digital camera we roamed the museum, explored historic vehicles and ventured through the fields (and stalls of cool stuff to buy!) for a magical journey through time!

While out at the pumping station we also stopped for a quick cake and some soda before checking to remember where Hooves parked their Tardis, fortunately, it was still right where we left it!

Dr Hooves' thoughts on this trip are "I had hoped to land in a time when the place was still operating. But we did get cake, and I'm not one to look a gift horse in the mouth!"

Light's Tip of the month!

Tired of your microwaved beans always being burnt and yucky?

Give them a stir half-way through! For a regular tin, try heating them for about a minute, give them a good stir, then pop them back in for another minute and a half. Easy! You'll have hot, tasty beans for toast, toasties or other bean & bread treats!

(Take them out the tin first, though!!!)

Thanks for reading our first issue!!! We'll be sending these out every month, so stay tuned to that internet, err, frequency!

As a teaser for next month, I'll have Kazzie let us all in on some super secret dragon secrets, and she'll also be answering YOUR questions!! I can't wait!
